

KEYNOTE SPEAKER / COMEDIAN / PBA PIONEER

MIKE BOLLAND

TAKE THE SHOT ANYWAY

You don't need the perfect hand. You just need the courage to use the one you've got.

THE SIGNATURE KEYNOTE

A funny, moving talk about taking action when success is not guaranteed. Through stories from bowling, business, cancer recovery, and life with a limb difference, Mike helps audiences rethink what it means to succeed.

WHAT AUDIENCES TAKE AWAY

COURAGE TO ACT

Move forward before every condition feels perfect.

A NEW VIEW OF FAILURE

Measure growth by the attempt, not only the result.

THEIR OWN NEXT SHOT

Name one meaningful action they have been putting off.

MEET MIKE

Born without his right hand, Mike played Danny in The Trial of Billy Jack and became the first person with limb loss to earn a PBA card and compete on the PBA Tour. After nearly 30 years at Discount Tire and a 2016 cancer diagnosis, he returned to professional bowling at age 61. Today he is a speaker, comedian, host of We're Not Stumped, disability advocate, and founder of Joe & Marie Bolland's Helping Hands.

"Mike Bolland made a lasting impact at our 2019 employee conference, and I highly recommend him as a speaker."
